

Elder-in-residence

Supported by Centre for Stories' Community Fund donors

Overview

Elder-in-residence is a three-month residency that provides a $3000 stipend for a storyteller over the age of 60 who has been practising their craft for at least ten years. The residency is open to Western Australian performers, writers, poets, oral storytellers, and scriptwriters. Nominees must be permanent residents, Australian citizens, or be living on a temporary protection visa.

Duration

The residency will take place over a three-month period.

Location

Centre for Stories
100 Aberdeen Street, Northbridge, Western Australia 6003.

Funding

The recipient of this residency will be awarded a $3,000 stipend. Payment of the stipend will be in two parts: 50 per cent upon commencing the residency and 50 per cent upon completion.

Other Benefits

A workspace at the Centre for Stories.
Access and use of the Centre for Stories Library.
